The forum will take place at the JW Marquis Marriott Hotel and aims to attract foreign direct investment by presenting to the companies and institutions business opportunities available in Haiti and as well the interesting incentives for doing business in Haiti.

In this occasion, the Government intends to promote the following priority sectors : Telecommunication, Technology, Natural Ressources, Nearshoring & Exports, Transportations, Agriculture, Forestry, Productions & Tourism, Industry and Services.

The forum will be also a great occasion to meet directly with the right government stakeholders that will facilitate understanding the rules and regulations as well as the benefits to invest in Haiti.

I am encouraged by the interest already demonstrated by major american and international companies and value your logistic support in order to facilitate a sound organization of the forum. Please let me know during this coming week the necessary steps to confirm hotel reservations and other arrangements.
